

Southampton Camera Club

presents an evening with

Anne Healey FRPS DPAGB EFIAP/s

"The Wildlife of Costa Rica"

Monday 28th November 2022 | 7:45pm

Ann Healey is a professional photographer, specialising in nature, based in Twickenham, Middlesex, United Kingdom.

A multi-award-winning photographer, Ann is a Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society (FRPS), has attained the Distinction level of the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (DPAGB), EFIAP/s (the Silver level of Excellence of the Federation Internationale de L'Art Photographique and was awarded her BPE4*, the fourth level of the British Photographic Exhibition Crown Awards in the Summer of 2022.

Her images have featured in many International and National photographic exhibitions, as well as winning a multitude of National and International awards. Ann had two images shortlisted in the Close-Up Photographer of the Year in 2021 and one of her images was shortlisted in the British Wildlife Photography Awards in 2022.

<https://www.annhealeyphotography.com/>

Come along early to Copythorne Hall and get a seat before we start at 7:45p. (doors open 7pm) finishing around 10pm. Refreshments are available at half time.

Club Members £1 | Visitors are welcome £7 on the door.

www.southamptoncameraclub.co.uk

Copythorne Parish Hall | Pollards Moor Lane | Copythorne | Southampton. SO40 2NZ